

Nirvana Trust Code Programme

Converting global demand for financial confidence into reliable funding for Indigenous Nations and Communities

“

Most people don't fear volatility. They fear loss.

— Shlomo Benartzi, Behavioral Economist, 15.5M followers

“

About 72% (1.9 billion) people worldwide are loss-averse... Yet the industry continues to define risk as fluctuation.

— Wall Street Journal, July 2025

Who We Are

Nirvana is built to demystify finance. It presents clear, transparent results based solely on each customer's needs, including explicit estimates of potential investment downside.

Nirvana puts loss tolerance first and organises the rest accordingly. It complements, rather than replaces, professional advice.

Why Indigenous Nations choose the Nirvana Trust Code programme

Earn Recurring Funding - Just Publish Your Nirvana Trust Code

Publish your unique Trust Code. Subscribers get 10% off. Your community receives 10% their monthly subscription. No onboarding. No servicing. Just recurring funding.

Your Annual Funding

250K Live codes: USD $12.15M per year
1M Live codes: USD $48.6M per year
5M Live codes: USD $243M per year
10M Live codes: USD $486M per year

Align with Behaviour, Not Buzzwords

Nirvana isn't robo, crypto, budgeting, or rewards. It solves for loss aversion—the #1 emotional barrier to investing. That's why 1.9 billion people need it.

Easy to launch

Two routes: your supporters and the wider public. Publish your Trust Code; Nirvana handles onboarding and support. Any subscriber may choose your Trust Code at checkout.

Nirvana is the only global retail-facing service built around loss aversion. By far the most dominant investor behaviour on the planet.
